

As a resident of New Jersey, I strongly support our state's Do Not Call policy, and I urge you not to overturn it. Indeed, I wish the citizens of every state had a policy as good as New Jersey's. The implementation of the federal and state Do Not Call lists have made my life significantly better. How often does anyone say that about an act of government? Please remember that your role is to serve the public, not business.